Response

- Do you commission teledermatology services? And specifically for Skin cancer assessment?

Yes for general teledermatology. No, for specific skin cancer – these may be commissioned by Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust (RCHT) or University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust (UHP) so you may wish to contact them directly. Contact details can be found below.
Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust - rch-tr.foi@nhs.net
University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust - plh-tr.foi-requests@nhs.net

- Which provider(s) are contracted?

Consultant Connect

- What was the total activity through these services?

Please see attached spreadsheet. These are appointments that were handled when the patient did not attend the hospital for their appointment. These are all for Dermatology and where the patient is marked as attending. Along with via telephone, some are recorded as video and virtual.

- What was the total annual spend?

Financial year 2025/26 = £28,800

- Which Trusts participate in these pathways?

Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust (RCHT) or University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust (UHP)

- Are any procurements, pilots or service expansions planned within the next 24 months?

No.

- Please provide the name and job title of the senior lead responsible for dermatology commissioning.

NHS Cornwall and Isles of Scilly does not give names of staff below executive level. Executive responsible is Libby Ryan-Davies, Chief Strategic Planning and Commissioning Officer. Email via contact us form.
