Response

1.Please list your direct contracts for ND (ASD and/or ADHD) services. Please include name of service (e.g. CYP/Adult, ASD/ADHD, Assessment/Titration/Needs-Led), name of provider, annual value of contract, total contract value and contract duration.

Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust (CFT) lead the full neurodiversity (ND) pathway. The service is ADHD diagnostic service and the autism diagnostic service.

The ICB is currently reviewing and updating the children's service specification for ASD/ADHD which will outline the principles of the offer delivering across Royal Cornwall Hospitals Trust and CFT.

The contract includes an overarching specification which sets out outcomes and requirements for compliance with NHS England and NICE guidance and statutory responsibilities such as special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).

The annual value of the service is not separately identifiable from the block amount in the current finance construct. Contract start date 1 April 2026 – 31 March 2029.

2.Please list your accredited providers for ND (ASD and/or ADHD) services, including the name of service and the name of provider.

NHS Cornwall does not have any Right to Choose accredited providers for autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) Services.

Patients may choose providers accredited by other ICBs under Right to Choose legislation and are paid via non-contractual activity. These providers are not directly contracted by NHS Cornwall and Isles of Scilly ICB.

3.Please publish your tariff pricing under your accreditation scheme.

CFT is the only provider with a direct contract with NHS Cornwall and Isles of Scilly ICB and the financial information has been provided in question 1.
